

MISIÓN 15: ¿Cómo dices que te dicen?

Por: Ana Romero

Spanish Lexile Level: 810L - 1200L

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Details on events and actions support explicit understanding and inferences.	Quotes support inferences on character motivations.	Evidence on character responses supports analysis of moral dilemmas.	Textual evidence supports inferred ideas on consequences.	Strong evidence on character development and moral conflicts.	Thorough evidence supports analysis of decisions and theme.	Evidence supports detailed analysis of moral themes and conflicts.	Close reading supports inferences on responsibility and character themes.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	Theme of responsibility and decision-making explored through Juan's reflections on theft.	Theme of consequences of action vs. inaction is clearly developed and summarized.	Theme of justice and moral choice developed through Juan's internal conflict.	Theme of loyalty vs. justice developed objectively.	Theme of responsibility and justice emphasized through character actions.	Theme of moral choice and consequences analyzed through Juan's decisions.	Theme of justice and responsibility explored through central conflict.	Themes of justice and responsibility analyzed and summarized objectively.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	Juan's internal dialogue and actions reveal his moral struggle.	Contrast of Juan's internal conflict with interactions supports character analysis.	Plot events show Juan's reaction to Héctor's theft and internal resolution.	Interactions shape plot and consequences of Juan's inaction.	Plot progression is driven by Juan's internal conflict.	Complex dynamics of moral conflict drive plot.	Interactions reveal character evolution through moral dilemmas.	Juan's moral dilemma central to plot progression and resolution.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	Terms like "justice" and "responsibility" analyzed for thematic reflection.	Terms like "loyalty" show impact on actions and message.	Key terms affect Juan's internal conflict.	Connotative meanings analyzed for influence on tone and theme.	Key phrases influence tone and overall message.	Juan's reflections analyzed for tone and meaning impact.	Figurative meanings, like "conscience," explored for thematic depth.	Analysis of phrases like "weight of responsibility" shapes moral themes and tone.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Not addressed.	Partially addressed by examining structure of Juan's reflections on rules.	Partially met by analyzing how plot points affect Juan's decision-making.	Partially addresses structure through rules and moral resolution.	Partial analysis of text structure in relation to moral decisions.	Structure shows development of Juan's internal conflict.	Story structure analyzed for impact on moral dilemma and plot.	Narrative structure shows Juan's conflict with loyalty and responsibility.
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	Third-person limited view shows internal conflict shaped by events.	Perspective highlights Juan's reflections on justice and friendship.	Limited view reveals Juan's thoughts on theft, shaping narrative.	Perspective contrasts internal thoughts and external actions.	Limited perspective key to Juan's moral debate.	Viewpoint deepens analysis of moral struggle and narrative.	Perspective contrasts internal reflection with events.	Limited perspective shapes analysis of Juan's conflict and actions.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	Moral dilemma comparable to classic right wrong themes.	Themes of responsibility and justice compared to traditional moral conflicts.	Dilemma similar to classic patterns of loyalty vs. justice.	Conflict can be contrasted with traditional moral dilemmas.	Justice and responsibility themes reflect traditional myths.	Moral conflict mirrors classic loyalty vs. justice conflicts.	Themes of justice and morality compared to classic literature.	Moral responsibility reflects themes in traditional stories.

MISIÓN 16: Robatriques
 Por: Adriana García Chalela
 Spanish Lexile Level: 1010L - 1200L

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Juan's internal debate about accusing Héctor supports explicit and inferred meaning.	Quotes, like Juan's reasoning about Héctor's supplies, support inferences.	Reflections on rules mirror Juan's moral dilemma.	Text supports analysis of Juan's struggle and decisions.	Multiple examples show Juan's conflict between loyalty and responsibility.	Complex analysis of Juan's inaction and its moral implications.	Evidence supports analysis of friendship vs. moral responsibility.	Detailed analysis on Juan's rationalization of small thefts.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	Theme of moral conflict explored through Juan's decision.	Theme centers on consequences of inaction and moral choice.	Clear theme of moral conflict and decision impact.	Theme of responsibility developed through Juan's choices.	Focus on moral struggle and impact of Juan's decision.	In-depth theme of justice and moral responsibility.	Theme of personal conflict and responsibility fully developed.	Theme of moral conflict and responsibility analyzed thoroughly.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	Juan's internal dialogue shows his moral struggle.	Loyalty tested through interactions with Héctor.	Plot reveals Juan's internal dilemma about reporting Héctor.	Interactions highlight effects of rules on plot and character.	Juan's reflections propel plot and develop character.	Complex character of Juan explored through moral struggles.	Character development driven by Juan's internal conflicts.	Juan's moral dilemma and development analyzed.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	"Weight of the law" analyzed for consequence interpretation.	"Small items" vs. moral consequences in rules.	Connotative meanings of "justice" impact tone.	"Weight of the rules" reflects Juan's perception of consequences.	Impact of "justice" and "conscience" on meaning and tone.	"Truth in action" analyzed for implications on justice.	Word choices explored for moral and legal consequence.	Phrases like "weight of the law" examined for tone and meaning.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Not addressed.	Partially met by discussing Juan's internal dilemma's effect on meaning.	Partially met by how rules structure Juan's moral debate.	Partial analysis of rules guiding Juan's decisions and plot.	Partially met through classroom and court rules shaping conflict.	Structure analyzed as Juan's conflict builds toward resolution.	Structure focuses on Juan's struggle leading to action.	Structure shows Juan's internal debate culminating in decision.
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	Third-person limited view shapes Juan's thoughts and decisions.	Perspective highlights portrayal of Juan's moral conflict.	Limited view shows Juan's thoughts on Héctor's theft.	Perspective contrasts internal conflict with external actions.	Differences in Juan's conflict and actions influence narrative.	Limited perspective enables close analysis of moral struggle.	Juan's perspective shapes moral choices and reader's understanding.	Perspective shapes interpretation of Juan's conflict with rules.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.	Not addressed.
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	Moral dilemma theme comparable to classic moral conflicts.	Theme of moral struggle compared to loyalty vs. justice stories.	Theme mirrors traditional conflicts between right and wrong.	Similar patterns of moral responsibility in classic literature.	Justice and responsibility themes align with classic moral stories.	Juan's moral conflict reflects themes in traditional literature.	Loyalty vs. justice theme reflects classic stories on morality.	Universal themes of justice and conflict with right and wrong.

MISIÓN 18: Primeros habitantes de este vecindario continental, América.

Por: Adriana García Chalela
Spanish Lexile Level: 610L - 1200L

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Narrator's reflection on being a river illustrates environmental change and human impact.	Quotes on river's transformation support inferences about environmental neglect.	Descriptions of river's decline support analysis of nature's vulnerability.	Details on river's shift from vibrant to polluted support deeper analysis of human impact.	Evidence of river's lament supports analysis of pollution's consequences.	Imagery of river's transformation supports analysis of environmental responsibility.	River's perspective emphasizes connection to human neglect, supporting in-depth analysis.	Detailed evidence on river's journey illustrates environmental change and human role.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	Theme of environmental change evident in river's reflections on pollution.	Theme of nature's fragility shown through river's gradual destruction by pollution.	Theme of environmental awareness conveyed through river's perspective on decline.	Theme of environmental degradation develops as river recounts loss.	Theme of environmental collapse reflects human impact on nature.	Theme of environmental change analyzed through river's memories of thriving and collapse.	Theme of environmental destruction deeply analyzed through river's decline.	Theme of environmental destruction analyzed through river's past and present.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	River's transformation described through pollution and loss of life.	Comparison of river's past and present shows human impact on nature.	Plot unfolds as river recounts pollution and degradation, showing change.	Interactions between river and environment reveal human impact.	Incidents like waste dumping reveal character of river and provoke reflection.	Plot progression analyzed through river's decline and pollution impact.	River's gradual decline and pollution analyzed in terms of environmental theme.	River's journey from vitality to pollution illustrates plot and theme.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	Words like "manso" (gentle) and "mortal" (dying) shape tone of river's transformation.	"Caudaloso" (raging) and "agonizante" (dying) reflect river's change and tone of loss.	Words like "vital" (alive) and "silencio" (silence) shape tone of drained vitality.	"Casi muerto" (nearly dead) emphasizes loss and human impact.	Words like "hermoso" (beautiful) and "moribundo" (dying) shape tone of regret.	Choices like "colapsado" (collapsed) emphasize tone of destruction.	Words like "desaparecido" (disappeared) highlight tone of gradual demise.	Choices like "agonía" (agony) emphasize transformation and environmental theme.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Story structure, from strength to weakness, develops theme of degradation.	River's history stages emphasize consequences of neglect.	Reflections on past and polluted present develop environmental theme.	Story's structure from thriving to dying supports theme of loss.	Structure shows division between river's past and present, developing theme.	Structure of river's life and death stages analyzed for theme of destruction.	Plot's structure from life to death emphasizes loss and decline.	Sections of river's vitality to pollution show narrative's environmental theme.
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	River's perspective on loss and neglect shapes description and empathy.	River's view of helplessness shapes tone and event descriptions.	River's perspective, showing strength and vulnerability, emphasizes environmental destruction.	River contrasts former power with polluted state, shaping loss description.	Difference between river's self-view and human treatment creates tension.	River's view of decline emphasizes human neglect in event descriptions.	River's loss of beauty and life shapes helpless tone and message.	River's perspective on former vitality and pollution supports theme of environmental destruction.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	Comparison of river's thriving past and polluted present reflects human intervention.	River's healthy past vs. polluted present highlights theme of environmental neglect.	River's former beauty contrasted with devastation illustrates theme of human impact.	River's experience shows pattern of loss common in environmental texts.	River's past and polluted present show themes of neglect shared in other stories.	Comparison to other texts on environmental decline shows shared themes of nature's vulnerability.	River's thriving past vs. dying present reflects theme of irreversible human impact.	Theme of environmental destruction and human impact shown in river's decline.

MISIÓN 19: Así soy yo

Por: Adriana Arrieta Munguía
Spanish Lexile Level: 610L - 1200L

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Details on Jesús' feelings and discovery as a goalkeeper support explicit and inferred understanding.	Quotes about Jesús's growth in confidence support analysis of character development.	Text shows Jesús's growth through evidence like his increasing confidence in goal.	Evidence of Jesús's interactions and shift in confidence supports in-depth character analysis.	Strong evidence, such as dialogue on talent, supports analysis of confidence growth.	Jesús's growth, through soccer practice, supports theme analysis.	Strong evidence in Jesús's development supports analysis of friendship and self-discovery.	Reflections on skills and confidence support inferences on growth and resilience.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	Theme of overcoming self-doubt shown in Jesús's journey to discover his strengths.	Central theme of perseverance highlighted by Jesús's response to soccer challenges.	Theme of self-discovery shown in Jesús's journey from doubt to confidence.	Theme of perseverance developed as Jesús overcomes insecurities on the field.	Theme of resilience and confidence developed through Jesús's character growth.	Theme of personal growth analyzed as Jesús overcomes rejection and insecurity.	Theme of self-fulfillment through perseverance analyzed through Jesús's growth.	Theme of perseverance and self-discovery shown through Jesús's journey.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	Plot centers on Jesús's journey from exclusion to proving himself as a goalkeeper.	Story's progression from rejection to success develops characters and plot.	Plot unfolds with Jesús's growth in confidence, showing progression through practice.	Interactions with Ricardo and growth in confidence move plot toward resolution.	Plot incidents like Jesús's improvement and support from Ricardo reveal growth.	Story's structure, particularly Jesús's transformation, shows character and theme interactions.	Plot progression through Jesús's doubts and triumphs develops theme.	Events of growth in confidence and soccer success illustrate perseverance and friendship.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	Words like "gordito" and "ágil" shape Jesús's self-view and the story's tone.	Terms like "gordito" and "portero" (goalkeeper) shape tone as Jesús gains confidence.	Phrases about soccer dreams reflect Jesús's shifting self-worth.	Words like "gordito" in dialogue show Jesús's redefined self-image.	Word choices reflect Jesús's journey from doubt to self-assurance.	Words about appearance and skills shape tone, focusing on growth and challenges.	Tone shaped by Jesús's journey from insecurity to confidence in soccer and self-worth.	Words related to soccer and self-image reflect Jesús's transformation from doubt to confidence.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Structure moves from rejection to success, supporting theme of confidence.	Structure of shifting from inadequacy to confidence contributes to message.	Plot structure, from self-doubt to goalkeeper success, emphasizes growth and perseverance.	Structured events and dialogue reflect the theme of perseverance.	Structure, with reflections followed by action, shows growth through soccer experiences.	Jesús's confidence builds through structured moments of practice and reflection.	Plot structure mirrors development in soccer and interactions with Ricardo, supporting growth theme.	Story structure of doubt leading to success builds themes of confidence and perseverance.
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	Jesús's viewpoint on exclusion vs. Ricardo's support shapes description of events.	Differing views between Jesús's insecurity and Ricardo's belief in him shape growth.	Contrast between Jesús's doubt and Ricardo's confidence shows progression.	Points of view on Jesús's talent reveal character and plot progression.	Jesús and Ricardo's differing views on Jesús's abilities create tension and drive growth.	Jesús's doubt vs. Ricardo's confidence influence story's direction.	Contrast between Jesús's internal struggle and Ricardo's support shapes narrative.	Jesús's self-view vs. others' perceptions shape plot and theme development.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	Comparison of exclusion and confidence shows growth through challenge.	Contrast between Jesús's doubt and Ricardo's support reflects growth themes.	Comparison of Jesús's transformation with Ricardo's support highlights growth.	Comparison of self-doubt and triumph shows different approaches to challenges.	Comparison of Jesús's inadequacy and confidence reflects perseverance.	Comparison of Jesús's growth with Ricardo's support shows determination theme.	Comparison of self-discovery and friendship from different perspectives.	Contrast of confidence and success shows theme evolution through self-perception.

MISIÓN 20: La pasión de Santi

Por: Adriana Arrieta Munguía

Spanish Lexile Level: 410L - 800L

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Details on Santi's passion and conversations support character and event analysis.	Quotes on Santi's career aspirations support inferences about his motivations.	Evidence of Santi's goals helps explain his character development.	Multiple examples, like Santi's plans and Juan's reflections, show how views shape the story.	Strong dialogue reveals theme and character growth through Santi's motivations.	Analysis of Santi's character growth supported by his passion and insights on life.	Evidence from Santi's views on work and family supports inferences about values.	Citations on Santi's career and philosophy support themes of hard work and passion.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	Theme of passion and perseverance shown through Santi's commitment to his career.	Central theme of following passion highlighted by Santi's future goals.	Theme of purpose shown through Santi's dedication to mechanics.	Theme of passion and dedication develops, influencing Juan's self-awareness.	Theme of pursuing passion is explored through Santi's influence on others.	Fulfillment through passion deeply analyzed, showing contrasts between Santi and Juan.	Themes of passion, work, and fulfillment analyzed through characters' interactions.	Theme of perseverance and passion developed through Santi, Juan, and Angélica's reflections.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	Plot develops as Santi shares his passion, shaping views on life and work.	Story progression, like Juan's realization about music, advances character growth.	Series of conversations on goals and passion drive the plot and personal growth.	Interactions reveal deeper understanding of passion as Santi discusses goals.	Key incidents, like Santi's dedication to cars, drive action and character development.	Plot development through contrasting ideas of success contributes to theme.	Plot shows Santi's passion for cars and Juan's growth, moving toward resolution.	Conversations on passion and aspirations propel narrative and theme exploration.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	"Passion" emphasizes dedication and hard work, shaping meaning and tone.	Words like "dedication" and "dream" develop tone of determination.	Language around passion vs. doubt conveys contrasting character perceptions.	Key phrases like "hard work" analyzed for tone, showing Santi's influence.	Word choices around "passion" shape story tone, highlighting reflections on goals.	Terms like "dedication" shape tone, showing contrast in determination and doubt.	Words like "passion" and "perseverance" shape narrative tone and character influence.	Terms like "passion" and "dedication" establish a tone of hard work and alignment of values.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Structure from doubt to motivation shows theme development.	Shift from casual talk to goal reflection supports plot and theme.	Conversations on plans create a structure contrasting passion and doubt.	Structured dialogue on passion and success deepens story's structure.	Conversations about plans emphasize theme development in structure.	Reflective and practical discussions contribute to theme and meaning.	Structure shows complexities of fulfillment, from Santi's clarity to Juan's doubts.	Dialogue-driven structure builds themes of passion and success through character perspectives.
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	Santi's dedicated outlook contrasts with Juan's uncertainty, shaping events.	Each character's viewpoint reveals how outlooks shape decisions.	Santi's confidence vs. Juan's self-doubt shows influence on growth.	Contrasting views between Santi's certainty and Juan's search shape interactions.	Santi's clear view contrasts with Juan's hesitation, affecting theme.	Differing views on passion and career drive character growth and plot.	Santi's passion vs. Juan's uncertainty creates contrast in interactions.	Santi's passion and Juan's uncertainty reveal character growth and responses to challenges.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	Comparison of Santi's passion vs. Juan's hesitation reveals contrast in approach to goals.	Contrast of Santi's confidence vs. Juan's doubt shows character growth themes.	Comparison of Santi's dedication with Juan's uncertainty deepens theme.	Santi's defined path vs. Juan's indecision highlights different approaches to success.	Santi's passion vs. Juan's doubt enhances theme of self-discovery.	Santi's dedication vs. Juan's uncertainty shows different views on fulfillment.	Comparison of Santi's passion for cars and Juan's hesitant approach to music.	Contrast of confidence and success in approach to self-discovery and perseverance.

MISIÓN 21: Los influenciables

Por: Ana Romero

Spanish Lexile Levels: 810L - 1400L

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Details on Juan and Angélica's concern for Mauricio support understanding.	Quotes about influenza symptoms support inferences about concern.	Evidence on symptoms and reactions supports analysis of misinformation.	Evidence, like José Luis's remarks, supports analysis of differing beliefs.	Evidence from José Luis's denial and Angélica's fear shows how misinformation affects perceptions.	Analysis of characters' perspectives on influenza is supported by quotes on skepticism and caution.	Evidence on health concerns shapes understanding of science and skepticism.	Citations about influenza symptoms and José Luis's dismissal support inferences on misinformation.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	Theme of health misinformation is clear through characters' conversations.	Theme of misinformation on influenza and varying concern is central.	Theme of scientific literacy vs. skepticism shown in characters' responses to influenza.	Theme of science vs. belief explored through influenza discussions.	Theme of skepticism vs. trust in science shown through José Luis's denial.	Theme of health literacy explored as Angélica emphasizes caution.	Themes of health literacy and misinformation develop through characters' differing views.	Theme of science's importance vs. misinformation shown through reactions to influenza.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	Plot unfolds with children's concern and José Luis's reaction, shaping responses.	Interactions show how skepticism and concern over influenza evolve.	Events like discovering symptoms reveal changes in characters' perspectives.	Interactions about influenza provide insight into evolving viewpoints.	Incidents around influenza propel action and reveal character growth.	Plot's development through characters' changing beliefs about influenza advances health themes.	Characters' reactions to influenza evolve as societal influences drive plot.	Events around symptoms and influenza shape character development and story progression.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	Terms like "influenza" show tone and seriousness of reactions.	Words like "influenza" and "virus" show difference between science and belief.	Terms like "virus" affect understanding of flu and scientific authority.	Words like "patraña" shape tone, showing José Luis's dismissal of science.	Terms like "influenza" set serious tone as children discuss symptoms.	Word meanings shape disbelief vs. caution narrative through José Luis.	Terms like "A-H1N1" show varied approaches to science, impacting tone.	Words like "virus" clarify tone, showing contrast in children's caution vs. José Luis's disbelief.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Structure of dialogue, from concern to dismissal, develops central theme.	Story structure highlights misinformation's danger through character reactions.	Back-and-forth dialogue creates tension, building narrative around health concerns.	Structure of interactions explores health literacy through misinformation.	Structure contrasts children's fears with José Luis's skepticism, enhancing theme.	Scenes showing José Luis's disbelief drive plot, highlighting scientific authority's role.	Structure shows how disbelief and caution create a narrative on scientific trust.	Story moves from discovery of symptoms to tackling misinformation, showing literacy's importance.
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	Contrasts between José Luis and children reveal differing science views in crises.	José Luis's skepticism contrasts children's fear, shaping influenza threat perception.	Dialogue shows clash of disbelief vs. caution, impacting narrative's progression.	Viewpoints like José Luis's mockery of science illustrate health misinformation spread.	Points of view contrast, showing skepticism vs. concern toward health issues.	Differing perspectives drive narrative, showing skepticism's effect on decisions.	Complex points of view explore rejection vs. acceptance of science, shaping plot.	Viewpoint differences highlight health and science responses, driving narrative.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed	Not Addressed
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	Comparison of children's science-based understanding vs. José Luis's skepticism contrasts views on science.	Comparison of acceptance of science vs. rejection shows varied responses.	Tension from children's health understanding vs. José Luis's misinformation.	Contrast of health approaches shows skepticism vs. science's role.	Contrast of José Luis's "hoax" view vs. children's concern highlights misinformation.	Misinformation vs. science shown in characters' differing flu perspectives.	Comparison of health measures' acceptance vs. denial explores misinformation.	Contrast in scientific and health information reception reveals cultural divides.

MISIÓN 22: No me olvides. Sólo voy y vengo

Por: Adriana García Chalela
Spanish Lexile Level: 810L - 1800L

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Specific details on Juan's reactions to urbanization support explanations and inferences.	Quotes about urbanization reveal Juan's feelings about city changes.	Textual evidence, like Juan's responses, supports analysis of urban growth.	Descriptions of city expansion and Juan's reflections enable analysis.	Evidence from Juan's perspective on urbanization supports analysis of change.	Quotes on Juan's reflections on city growth provide depth for analysis.	Detailed evidence of Juan's internal conflict supports analysis of urban impacts.	Explicit details on urban transformation and Juan's perspective support comprehensive analysis.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	Theme of urbanization is developed through Juan's experiences.	Change and adaptation are shown through Juan's struggle with city growth.	Themes of urban growth and adaptation emerge through dialogue and reflection.	Theme of adaptation unfolds through Juan's conversations.	Themes of urbanization and adaptation develop and resolve through dialogue.	Story explores themes of urbanization and personal adaptation.	Interactions develop themes of urbanization and change.	Themes of urbanization and adaptation are fully developed through dialogue.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	Juan's frustration and his uncle's insights reveal character growth.	Comparison of Juan's frustration and his uncle's logic highlights character growth.	Juan's development and uncle's influence show character progress.	Juan's growth is shown through interactions with his uncle's calm reasoning.	Events reveal Juan's responses to change, advancing the plot.	Juan's emotional journey advances through his interactions with his uncle.	Motivations drive character growth and plot progression.	Juan's reactions to his uncle's guidance reveal growth and drive the plot.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	Terms like "urbanization" shape tone, underscoring themes of change.	Words like "drying up" emphasize tone and environmental impacts.	Terms like "urbanization" convey tone and city growth effects.	Phrases like "drying rivers" reflect tone and themes of loss.	Words like "decline" set a somber tone on environmental shifts.	Terms like "legacy" evoke tone and emphasize city expansion's impact.	Words like "withered" highlight tone and changes in the environment.	Terms on urban growth and loss shape tone and convey themes of change.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	Juan's frustration contrasts with his uncle's calm, shaping perspective.	Juan's limited view contrasts with his uncle's broader understanding.	Juan's emotional outlook contrasts with his uncle's practical approach.	Contrasting views on change reveal different perspectives.	Juan and his uncle's perspectives show varied responses to urbanization.	Juan's reaction contrasts with his uncle's logical view.	Personal vs. pragmatic perspectives shape the narrative.	Different perspectives on urban change reveal contrasting responses.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	Urban growth theme compared to universal challenges of change.	Themes of urbanization invite comparisons with similar stories.	Themes of city growth appear in other narratives on adaptation.	Urbanization themes align with traditional stories of change.	Text's theme aligns with other works on preservation and growth.	Story's urban theme parallels other tales of change.	Themes of city growth invite comparisons with cultural narratives.	Themes of city growth and change invite comparisons with related works.

MISIÓN 23: La alumna nueva

Por: Adriana Arrieta Munguía
Spanish Lexile Level: 810L - 1200L

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Characters like María and Angélica reveal curiosity and diversity through dialogue.	Quotes from María and Angélica highlight cultural discussions.	Examples like "Madrid" and "tortillas" support understanding of cultural shifts.	María's confusion and Angélica's curiosity provide evidence of language differences.	Dialogue on María's difficulty with local phrases supports analysis of cultural exchange.	María's adaptation to new language and culture shapes the story.	María's experiences challenge her views, with supporting citations.	Dialogue and descriptions allow inferences on language differences and cultural adaptation.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	Cultural exchange is shown through María's Spanish background, enhancing diversity.	Learning through shared experiences is seen in classmates' response to María.	Cultural diversity theme is shown by María's influence on discussions.	Classmates reflect on María's background, noting vocabulary differences.	Theme develops through dialogue, as María's background fosters cultural appreciation.	Cultural interaction emphasized through María's background, as characters learn from each other.	Cultural exchange is deeply explored through María's background, revealing language and tradition.	Cultural understanding grows as characters learn from María's experiences, shaping their perspectives.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	Interactions among María, Angélica, and the teacher shape the story, with details on Spain and Mexico.	Comparing María's and Angélica's views, like María's confusion over tortillas, shows contrasts.	Events from introductions to discussions reveal reactions to María's background.	Plot advances as María introduces cultural elements, prompting reflection.	Character growth is shown as María adapts and Angélica's curiosity grows.	María's motivations and interactions reveal a nuanced cultural exchange plot.	Cultural backgrounds drive character growth and interactions.	Characters like María and Angélica develop as they embrace cultural differences.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	Words like "patatas" and "ordenador" show language differences, enhancing cultural exchange.	Regional terms like "tortilla" and "patatas" highlight cultural differences.	Words like "ordenador" reveal cultural nuances, shaping narrative tone.	Terms like "tortilla" vs. "patatas" highlight linguistic diversity.	Words like "ordenador" and "tortilla" reflect language shifts that affect tone.	Terms deepen tone and cultural context.	Word choices highlight cultural differences, shaping tone.	Terms like "ordenador" show how language differences frame the text.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Dialogue structure reveals cultural understanding through María's exchanges.	Story structure, with students sharing experiences, builds understanding of diversity.	Dialogue around María's introduction drives the theme of cultural learning.	Interactions with María enhance cultural understanding.	Structure, including cultural exchanges and María's perspective, supports theme.	Events around María's introduction shape understanding of cultural exchange.	Structure supports character connection to cultural identities.	Dialogue structure highlights cultural differences, broadening understanding.
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	Viewpoints show classroom's cultural diversity, contrasting María's Spanish and Mexican experiences.	María's Spanish background shapes her descriptions, highlighting perspective contrasts.	Viewpoints reveal how worldviews shape interactions.	Perspectives on cultural differences deepen understanding of characters.	María and Angélica's different views add humor and tension, aiding development.	Viewpoints, especially María's, reveal cultural diversity and shape interactions.	Cultural views between María and classmates create a rich narrative.	Contrasts in views between María's Spanish and classmates' Mexican backgrounds enhance understanding.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	María's Spanish culture contrasts with classmates' Mexican traditions, enriching the theme.	Comparison of Spanish and Mexican traditions, especially in food and language, highlights cultural differences.	Story compares Spanish and Mexican cultures using traditions and language.	Cultural comparisons explore diverse traditions and themes.	Spanish and Mexican culture contrasts show how food, language, and traditions shape interactions.	Comparison of traditions emphasizes cultural themes.	Cultural contrasts explore how traditions shape identities.	Analysis of Spain-Mexico contrasts builds understanding of language, tradition, and cultural identity.

MISIÓN 24: ¡No más cancha de futbol!

Por: Adriana Arrieta Munguía
Spanish Lexile Level: 610L - 1000L

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Juan's reaction to losing the football field and his uncle's comments on urbanization offer specific details for understanding.	Quotes on urbanization reveal Juan's and his uncle's feelings about the city's changes.	Juan's conversation with his uncle provides evidence for analyzing the impact of city growth.	Multiple references to environmental changes and Juan's responses support citing evidence.	Textual evidence in Juan's reactions and the uncle's urbanization comments enables analysis.	Evidence of Juan's emotional conflict and the uncle's reasoning deepens analysis of urban growth and adaptation.	Dialogue and internal conflict in Juan support strong inferences about urbanization's impact.	Details on urban growth and Juan's views allow for comprehensive analysis of adaptation.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	The theme of urban growth and its effects on life is expressed through dialogue and experiences.	Change and adaptation are clear themes, as Juan struggles to accept city changes.	Urban growth's personal impact on Juan is conveyed through dialogue, allowing for summary.	Adaptation theme unfolds through Juan's conversations with his uncle.	Themes of adaptation and urbanization build and resolve through the dialogue.	Themes of adapting to city expansion are developed through reflections on urbanization.	Interactions reveal the complex theme of change and growth, with analysis opportunities.	City growth and adaptation are developed through interactions, allowing for summary.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	Juan's frustration contrasts with his uncle's wisdom, highlighting thoughts and actions around the football field.	Comparing Juan's frustration with his uncle's calm approach shows character growth.	Juan's emotional change through his uncle's guidance shows his development.	Interactions between Juan's frustration and his uncle's reason reveal evolving dynamics.	Juan's reactions to environmental change and his uncle's views drive the plot.	Juan's conflict and the uncle's calmness reveal growth, advancing the theme of urban change.	Juan's reluctance vs. his uncle's pragmatism highlight character motivations.	Juan and his uncle's exchanges focus on adapting to change, deepening the theme.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	Terms like "urbanization," "condominiums," and "resources" reflect contextual meaning, aiding understanding.	Figurative language such as "everything is drying up" underscores environmental change.	Words like "urbanization" and "resources" show city growth impacts, enabling word choice analysis.	Phrases about urban change allow for determining figurative meanings.	Phrases on environmental decline convey tone and urbanization themes.	Words around urbanization set a tone of loss for Juan and pragmatic acceptance from his uncle.	Words like "adaptation" convey complex meanings that shape tone.	Connotations of city expansion phrases shape the tone and meaning of the story.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Conversations between Juan and his uncle help illustrate urban adaptation.	Dialogue builds structure and supports the adaptation theme.	Each conversation episode between Juan and his uncle adds to theme and plot development.	Dialogue pacing emphasizes adaptation to city changes.	Sequential conversation points on urban growth develop theme and plot insights.	The story structure from resistance to understanding shapes the theme.	Dialogue and environmental details add meaning and impact.	Sequential dialogue structure emphasizes city growth's effect on individuals.
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	Third-person view contrasts Juan's frustration with his uncle's calm approach, inviting comparison.	Juan's limited view contrasts with his uncle's understanding of urbanization.	Contrasts in Juan's and his uncle's views reveal differing reactions to city changes.	Juan's emotional view contrasts with his uncle's pragmatic stance, shaping story insights.	Perspective differences on city growth reveal contrasting feelings.	Juan's emotions and his uncle's logical approach highlight narrative structure.	Personal and pragmatic viewpoints develop story depth.	Contrasting views on city change shape the story's message.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	Comparisons with how different regions face urban growth and environmental protection challenges.	Similar themes of urbanization appear in other stories on balancing development and preservation.	City growth and environmental change themes invite comparison with similar stories.	Urbanization theme is comparable to other stories about progress and conservation.	Adaptation to urban growth is a theme comparable to texts on city expansion consequences.	Environmental change and adaptation invite comparisons with works on human impact on nature.	Urbanization and adaptation themes align with works on environmental and urban growth.	Themes of sustainability and urban effects invite comparison with related works.

MISIÓN 25: Muchos Méxicos
 Por: Adriana García Chalela
 Spanish Lexile Levels:

	4th Grade	5th Grade	6th Grade	7th Grade	8th Grade	9th-10th Grade	11th-12th Grade	College/ Career Readiness: Literature
"Stretch" Lexile by Grade:	740L - 1010L		925L - 1185L			1050L - 1335L	1185L - 1385L
Standard 1: Refer to details and examples from the text; make inferences	Key details, like Elena's excitement, support understanding of her motivations.	Quotes about Elena's discoveries highlight her curiosity and growth.	Evidence from Elena's exploration supports analysis of her character.	Instances reveal Elena's curiosity and responses to discoveries.	Strong evidence from Elena's reactions supports analysis of her development.	Complex evidence in Elena's dialogue and reflections supports character analysis.	In-depth quotes reveal Elena's motivations and thematic growth.	Detailed evidence from Elena's journey supports character analysis.
Standard 2: Determine theme; summarize text	The theme of exploration and discovery is shown through Elena's journey.	Themes of curiosity and learning are highlighted by Elena's actions.	Self-discovery unfolds as Elena navigates new experiences.	Curiosity as a theme unfolds through Elena's journey.	Themes of growth and curiosity build through Elena's experiences.	Exploration and discovery themes develop through Elena's reflections.	Curiosity and self-discovery are central to Elena's journey.	The text develops themes of exploration and growth.
Standard 3: Describe characters, settings, events	Elena's excitement and discoveries reveal her growth.	Elena's journey, driven by curiosity, develops through her experiences.	Elena's curiosity drives the plot, showing her growth through exploration.	Elena's actions reveal character evolution and propel the plot.	Elena's journey unfolds as her curiosity drives the narrative.	Plot events reveal Elena's growth and advance the theme.	Plot and character growth are evident as Elena explores.	Events reflect Elena's exploration, shaping the narrative.
Standard 4: Meaning of words and phrases in context	Words like "discovery" and "explore" highlight Elena's journey.	Terms like "curious" and "explorer" set a tone of wonder.	Words about exploration reflect Elena's excitement and growth.	Terms like "wonder" convey Elena's enthusiasm and shape tone.	Language choices evoke curiosity, adding depth to her journey.	Words about discovery reinforce curiosity and exploration themes.	Key terms enhance the tone of exploration, shaping the story.	Specific word choices convey Elena's excitement and the theme of discovery.
Standard 5: Explain structure of the text	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed
Standard 6: Point of view in narration	Narrative shows Elena's perspective as she navigates new ideas.	Elena's curiosity contrasts with her friends' reactions, showing different perspectives.	Elena's view on exploration contrasts with others, shaping her growth.	Differences in perspective reveal contrasts in Elena's reactions.	Elena's view on discovery influences her responses to others.	Her perspective on exploration adds depth to the theme.	Elena's viewpoint contrasts with others, enhancing theme development.	Varied perspectives reveal character growth and theme.
Standard 7: Connection between text and other media	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed	Not addressed
Standard 8: Compare texts on similar themes or topics	Elena's curiosity aligns with traditional tales of exploration.	Exploration themes parallel stories of adventure and growth.	Exploration is comparable to similar adventure narratives.	Elena's journey aligns with tales of curiosity and growth.	Exploration and self-discovery themes match traditional stories.	Text's theme aligns with traditional exploration narratives.	Themes of exploration are comparable to classic adventure tales.	Elena's journey reflects themes common in exploration stories.